GLENDALE MAN FOR RUSSIAN RELIEF DIRECTORSHIP

Walter Lyman Brown Sent by Secretary Herbert Hoover to Proceed to Riga

Walter Lyman Brown, probably the most widely known citizen about whom Glendale can boast, has been ordered by Herbert Hoover to proceed from London, where he is European director of American Relief work, to Riga, where he will prepare for an extension of relief work to starving Russia.

Mr. Brown is a brother of Howard L. Brown of 406 North Maryland avenue with whom their mother resides. He is a mining engineer like Hoover and rose rapidly during the war to the position of successor to the present secretary of commerce.

According to dispatches received by The Glendale Evening News yesterday Secretary Hoover's instructions stipulated, however, that American prisoners will have to be "delivered out of Russia as demanded by the state department before you open discussions."

Must Release Americans

Mr. Hoover cabled his instructions to Mr. Brown upon receiving the reply of Russian soviet authorities to his recent message to Maxim Gorky in which it is provided American prisoners would have to be released before food relief could be extended.

With Russia at the mercy of the United States for food, for otherwise it would have to fight all of Europe, it may be seen that Mr. Brown's position is one of the greatest in the reconstruction of the old world's greatest wreck. Deaths from pestilence and famine in Russia are said to be in excess of 10,000 daily. The situation is the most desperate ever faced by a modern nation.

Moscow, the soviet capital, fears that the exodus from the cholera-stricken districts by hordes of the hunger-driven peasants threatens to overwhelm the government. Maxim Gorky has been placed in charge of the Russian relief committee to work with Mr. Brown.

Miss Corinne Orff and C. J. Orff Buy South Glendale Lots

C. J. Orff and daughter, Miss Corinne Orff of 465 Milford street, during the past week have each purchased a lot on San Fernando road near Brand boulevard in the triangle. The sale was made through Lusby & Campbell. Mr. Orff and daughter are contemplating the erection of a business block on these lots some time in the near future.

Sunday Motor Journey Is Taken by Friends

Capturing a heap of cattails, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brenkman and children, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. Cuny and daughter, Miss Lucine Cuny of Detroit, Mich., thoroughly enjoyed a Sunday's motor trip to Santa Paula and Oxnard. At the latter place they visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moore who formerly occupied half of the Brenkman electrical store at 1510 South San Fernando road.

Roof on Reservoir Is Practically Complete

The roof covering the Glendale municipal water system's new 7,500,000 gallon reservoir on Verdugo road is practically completed now. The 75,000 feet of lumber used in its construction were furnished Contractor Peter L. Ferry by the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber Company.

Mrs. Emma Smith and Daughter Visit Here

Mrs. Emma Smith and daughter, Miss Bessie Smith, of Modesto, spent the latter part of last week at the home of Mrs. Smith's brother-in-law, John H. Hobart of 1834 Vassar street. The two ladies left on Sunday for their home in the central California city.

PLANS DINNER PARTY

Miss Frances Payne of 105 North Central avenue, assisted by her mother, Mrs. M. L. Payne, will entertain at a dinner party tomorrow evening. The guests will be her cousin, Dudley Bullock of Bakersfield, who has been her house guest for the last week, Miss Lunetta Hughes, Miss Betty Hughes and Clifford Hughes of Los Angeles.

Real Estate Agent's Home Is Sold While He Is on Vacation

"Five eighteen sold. Bring tent back with you to live in."

This was the cryptic message E. P. Hayward of the Edwards & Wildey Company office here telegraphed Harry McCartney of the same firm, who is vacationing in the north with his wife and family.

For Hayward had sold the roof from over the head of his business associate—a mean trick one would say, considering the fact that the McCartney's have moved about 'steen times in two years.

Thomas G. Widmeyre, the purchaser, moved right into the home as it was furnished and there is no question but what the McCartney family will need the tent until a transfer of household goods can be made.

Fordney Tariff Bill May Be Formed Again

BY FRAZER EDWARDS
United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 2.—Republican leaders in the senate today were facing with considerable concern the prospect of completely rewriting the Fordney tariff bill.

A tug of war over the valuation basis for assessing customs duties will begin Tuesday in the senate finance committee. If the American valuation plan, upon which the Fordney bill is based is thrown overboard as some leaders fear, the entire measure must be recast upon the established foreign valuation basis. Since the American valuation of the thousands of commodities named in the measure is higher than the foreign valuation, every rate would have to be increased to give the same protection afforded the Fordney bill.

Electrical System of City Being Increased

Work will begin this week on the proposed 15,000 volt "high line," which is to be strung from the substation on Howard street, north to Wilson avenue and then west to Central avenue. There it will be connected with the McNeil, or north line of the Southern California Edison company, which is one of the main power paths of the San Fernando valley.

N. L. Westbrook, who is the general foreman of the public service department, says that when the new line is completed Glendale will be as well fortified electrically as any other city of its size in the state. The proposed line is only to be used in case of an emergency, i. e., if the Eagle Rock, or South line, which is now the source of power supply, should "go out."

Girl Selects Muzzle of Gun for Bedroom

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., Aug. 2.—Louise O'Brien, 14, was found here sleeping in the muzzle of a big 14-inch gun at Fort Worden. The girl had been missing all night from her home. It was just chance that the gun she chose for a bedroom was not selected for target practice now going on. Louise climbed into the gun when she became lost and night was coming on, after the horse she was riding had run away and slightly injured her.

As it is their first visit to California there will be many other sight seeing trips they will enjoy.

TWO AUTOMOBILES STOLEN

Police of Glendale are searching for two Buick automobiles stolen over the week-end. Both are 1917 models. The owners of the stolen cars are V. C. Anderson of 340 West Doran street and T. W. Gray, who is visiting J. H. Webster of 1020 South Central avenue. Mr. Anderson's machine was taken from California and Maryland avenues, while that of Mr. Gray was taken from the street in front of Mr. Webster's residence.

In honor of the fifteenth birthday of her son, Harold, Mrs. Thomas E. Jones of 1125 North Louise street will entertain tonight with an informal dinner party. Pink roses will be used to center the table and covers will be laid for Miss Margaret Jones, Miss Velma Thompson of Long Beach, Henry Jones of Long Beach, Walter Hertzog, Harold Jones and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Jones.

HOLD ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION AT MISSION REST

Mrs. M. P. Moberly Prepares Program; Steady Growth Shown by Institution

More than fifty patients of the Mission Rest Home, 1011 South San Fernando road enjoyed a special entertainment and celebration on Monday in honor of the fourth anniversary of the present management of the institution.

Mrs. M. P. Moberly, who is owner and manager of the sanitarium, was assisted by her employees in making the affair an event of lasting memory to the aged men and women.

The gay celebration began at noon when the guests of honor enjoyed a delicious four course chicken dinner. Following the meal the old folks, most of whom are octogenarians, took their customary afternoon "siesta," after which the festivities were resumed.

In the evening a group of Hollywood young people's church societies entertained the gathering with an excellently rendered musical program. This included orchestral, instrumental solo and vocal selections.

During the evening's program several courses of delicious refreshments were served to the happy assemblage.

After conducting the Home four years Mrs. Moberly has changed the institution from a small hospital to a large one.

The original site consisting of two small lots has been gradually enlarged until Mrs. Moberly now owns seven acres adjoining the original property.

During the past year numerous improvements have been added, including a five room cottage for maids, two new dormitories, an office, a reception room and various other alterations.

The Home now accommodates more than fifty patients, with twelve nurses, maids and other employees in attendance. Elegantly equipped kitchens and dining rooms are special features of the establishment.

Hist, Hawkshaw! It Is Clew! Hobnailed Hoofs Cause Search

Hobnailed hoofs.

They caused a lot of grief for W. E. Palmer, local hauling contractor, after he had finished cleaning a church lot one day last week.

A piece of canvas was missing from the premises the next day which naturally led the church officials and police to suspect the man whose hobnailed hoofs were plainly visible.

Mr. Palmer's home was visited and a search was made, but far be it from him to take the tenting from a pastor and his flock. In a humorous letter to the editor of The Glendale Evening News, Mr. Palmer writes of the incident:

"I admit there might have been cause for suspicion. For I was a rustler in Jackson's Hole in 1887. And to feed two trucks, a pair of jacks, four babies and a wife, one has to be a 'rustler' in Glendale today. However, I have no use for canvas."

Which thoroughly establishes an alibi for Mr. Palmer whose reputation has been that of an honest, hard-working citizen of Glendale.

Ralph Tipton, Jr., Is Name of New Arrival

Ralph Tipton, Jr., is the name of the stranger who arrived August 1, 1921, to add to the household joys of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Tipton of Clarkdale, Ariz. The baby was born at a hospital, Mrs. Tipton having come here two months ago.

Mrs. Tipton is the wife of Ralph Tipton, former well-known young business man of this city and now of the Arizona city. While living in Glendale in 1917 Mr. Tipton enlisted in the army aviation service, going immediately to San Francisco for training. In a few months he was in Paris, where he met and married the present Mrs. Tipton.

Upon returning to this country in June of 1919 Mr. Tipton and his overseas bride, located in Clarkdale, where Mr. Tipton is now postmaster.

Mrs. Tipton and Ralph, Jr., will join their husband and father in a few weeks.

ENRICO CARUSO IS DEAD AS RESULT OF OPERATION

Golden Voice of World's Greatest Tenor Still; His Widow Is Prostrated

By CAMILLO CIANFARRA
United Press Staff Correspondent

NAPLES, Aug. 2.—Enrico Caruso, the world's greatest tenor, died here at 4 a. m. today.

His golden voice was stilled forever when he failed to rally from a relapse following an operation for an abscess.

Caruso's death was expected for several hours before the end came. He never had completely recovered from the effects of an operation for pleurisy which he underwent in New York last winter. As a result of this operation, physicians stated, he suffered from a diaphragmic abscess.

Another operation was performed in an effect to remove the accumulated pus, but it left Caruso badly weakened and he rapidly sank.

Gives Thanks Offering

Last Thursday the famous tenor and wife, the former Dorothy Benjamin, went to a sanctuary in the Pompeii valley where he offered prayers of thanks to the virgin for the recovery of his voice, heard a mass and gave 20,000 francs as a thanks offering.

Afterward Caruso visited the excavations at Pompeii.

On Saturday he felt pains in his abdomen. Those were the first warnings that the final illness was at hand.

He called a physician who advised him to go to Naples and consult specialists. Arriving in Naples on Sunday night Caruso called Professors Sorgi, Carozanzasodo and Hoscati.

After a long consultation these specialists diagnosed his case as acute peritonitis with a tendency to spread. They decided to operate.

Caruso, whose fortitude when suffering great pain was considered remarkable continued to keep up his good spirits.

However, he sank steadily. His

Boy and Girl Race to Get First Bike From Evening News

A bicycle race between a boy and a girl is being staged in Glendale.

Doris Magarell is the feminine contender and Dick Ahrens is the young man who would be first to win the $65 Harley-Davidson wheel being offered to every boy and girl who obtains twenty new yearly subscriptions for The Glendale Evening News.

Both leaped ahead yesterday with several long term subscribers and it is only a matter of a day or two until the first bicycle will be given away.

There are many other boys and girls who are working steady to get their subscription club of twenty years or the equivalent, and by the close of this offer, September 1, it is expected that a whole flock of Harley-Davidson bicycles will be in circulation.

At the close of the school term in May young Beach was selected by his fellow members of the Alpha Beta chapter of the Sigma Chi fraternity as their delegate to the national convention at Cincinnati, Ohio, which took place on June 28, 29 and 30.

After the convention Beach made a tour of numerous interesting trips to New York, Boston, Toronto, Chicago and many other large cities of the eastern part of the United States and Canada. He will return to Berkeley next week where he will complete his fourth year at the state institution. He has been elected house president of the Sigma Chi's for the coming year.

The fire was started by crossed wires. It burned wooden platforms behind the board. Traders gathered on the floor at 10 a. m. and were ready to do business despite the smoke and the firemen running lines of hose into the building, but it was decided to defer the opening.

S. Berman Helps to Advertise Glendale on His Auto Trip

Mr. and Mrs. S. Berman of 110 East Palmer avenue returned last night after a delightful three weeks' automobile camping trip in which they went as far north as Healdsburg, California. They made short stopovers in several cities en route and enjoyed a ten days' outing at Mirabel Park, a beautiful resort located seventeen miles from Santa Rosa.

In discussing his trip Mr. Berman said that he found out that Glendale was one of the best known and popular cities of the Pacific coast, and that he had received over a hundred queries regarding the growth, prosperity, etc., of this city.

While in San Francisco Mr. Berman purchased a specially made cloth banner with the words, "Glendale, California," artistically inscribed upon it. After then he declared, "people just wouldn't leave me alone asking about Glendale." In some towns he would be delayed several hours endeavoring to answer questions hurled at him regarding "the fastest growing city in the United States."

LIBERAL DONATIONS TO MISSION WORK BY ADVENTISTS

Camp Meeting Just Held at Alhambra Proves to Be Complete Success

With a record-breaking attendance Saturday and Sunday the most successful mid-summer conference and camp meeting in the history of the Southern California Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists closed at Alhambra Sunday night.

It is estimated that 4000 people were packed into the mammoth canvas pavilion for the regular Sabbath services Saturday. Hundreds more stood around the outside. One of the greatest revivals ever conducted by the denomination was held in the forenoon, followed by the largest offering to missions ever given at a Seventh-Day Adventist camp meeting.

Approximately $85,000 was donated to the foreign mission work. The churches of the conference have set a goal of $90,417.60 for carrying the gospel to heathen lands this year and this large donation will go far towards attaining this sum. A score, or more, of foreign missionaries on furlough have added to the missionary spirit of the conference.

Liberal Donations Made

There was received from the Sabbath school offering and at the 11 o'clock offering last Sabbath, in cash and short time pledges, which are to be paid before the end of the year, approximately $41,000.

At the afternoon services short talks were given by Elder J. O. Corliss of Glendale and Elder S. N. Haskell. The result of the morning offering was announced and the suggestion was made that the sum be brought up to $50,000. Within ten minutes more than $7,000 was received. In another fifteen minutes the remainder of the necessary amount was collected. The grand total amounted to $50,087.59, in addition to which more than $9,500 conditional pledges on the sale of real estate were received.

Elder J. O. Corliss of Glendale was heard to make the following remark in regard to the camp meetings:

"I have attended camp meetings all my life, and never saw anything like it before".

Valuable Advertising Received by Glendale Through Elks' Efforts

Several hundred members of the Glendale Elks' lodge attended the regular meeting at the club house last night, it being the first session of the month. Several visitors from eastern lodges, two of whom were from Massachusetts, were present at the gathering.

The twenty-piece orchestra, in charge of Director R. E. Ollin, gave a short concert during the evening, their efforts being applauded generously.

Following the regular business of the club L. W. Chobe, who was recently granted a life membership by the local lodge in honor of his activities in the national convention at Los Angeles, presented the lodge with an elegantly framed colored picture of the Glendale float which won first prize in the big floral parade. The picture, which was taken complete on the day of the parade, has been placed in a conspicuous place in the clubhouse.

Another item of interest and also one of great interest to the Glendale public, was the displaying of a photograph of the Glendale division of the national convention floral parade, taken from a Boston newspaper. This picture was the first one to be exhibited on the Atlantic coast, and occupied almost a half page of the paper. The word "Glendale" clearly occupied the center of the photograph, each letter being easily discernable.

After the closing of the meeting the members adjourned to the jinks room downstairs, where they enjoyed refreshments and a short two reel picture.

GEORGE WALSH STAR OF STRONG STORY, PALACE GRAND

Astounding Climax Is Provided In 'Dynamite Allen' for Today's Showing Only

George Walsh, the popular Fox star is at the Palace Grand today only in a new story from the pen of Thomas F. Fallon, entitled "Dynamite Allen". The scenes are laid in the mining regions of Pennsylvania. It is a highly dramatic tale, tense and absorbing, with a delightful romance running through many sensational and thrilling situations.

One of the most astounding climaxes occurs when Walsh, driving a locomotive, plunges through an open bridge, leaping from the cab as the engine sinks in the river. The destruction of a large residence by fire of course is spectacular. One of the greatest thrills, according to report, is supplied when Walsh, trapped in the bottom of a mine, discovers that it is being flooded.

An extra added attraction is "The Cook", a new edition of one of the famous comedies in which Fatty Arbuckle, Buster Keaton and Al St. John starred. It will drive the "blues" away. Tomorrow Shirley Mason in "Flame of Youth" is the feature.

Charles Potter Goes to Taft Oil Fields

Charles Potter, son of Mrs. M. L. Potter of 906 East Harvard street left Glendale yesterday for Taft, where he will resume his position at the fields of the Standard Oil company which he left in the summer of 1917 to join the United States army. He will again take up his duties as a tool dresser, having been granted three and a half years' priority by his employers.

Mr. Potter, who recently completed his term as lieutenant in the aviation service, has been expecting to receive his re-appointment from Washington headquarters during the past two months. Although he is confident that his reappointment will eventually be made Mr. Potter will now probably remain permanently with the Standard Oil company.

Peurrung and Pollock Secure Agency Here for Oldsmobile Auto

The J. W. Leavitt company, Oldsmobile distributors, have made a change in the sales agency of the Oldsmobile line in this territory, which comprises Glendale, Eagle Rock and Burbank. Messrs. Peurrung and Pollock have been appointed agents for the Oldsmobile, with temporary headquarters at the Rex garage at 308 East Colorado street, Glendale.

C. J. Peurrung is not a new comer to Glendale by any means. He is well known in this community, having come to Glendale in 1913 and resided here until a year ago, at which time he sold his Glendale property to locate in Burbank, where he represented a local automobile agency branch. Mr. Peurrung resigned his Burbank connection to take the Oldsmobile franchise for this territory. He is an experienced automobile man and states that he expects to sell the Oldsmobile on service.

Mr. Peurrung calls the new Oldsmobile four a "sensational motor value" because it is sensational in performance, appearance and price. It is sensational in performance as a four cylinder because it is practically without vibration at any speed, riding in it you cannot tell whether it has four, six or eight cylinders; it establishes a new standard for four cylinder performance, he says.

Mr. Peurrung wants every one owning an automobile to see the car and ride in it. He believes all will be surprised at its sensational performance, appearance and price.

"The Oldsmobile has proven by a hundred different tests as to its power, and is gaining further favor because of its remarkable performance records in the hands of owners. Its marked economy is also most pleasing to thrifty owners," he says.

LUMBER PRICES TO REMAIN STABLE, SAYS DEALER

George L. Bentley of Opinion Glendale Will Have Big Building Boom In Fall

With prospects of a greatly increased business this fall, the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company, with offices and yards on Los Feliz road at the Southern Pacific tracks, has installed $6,000 additional mill machinery the last few days, according to George L. Bentley.

W. R. Letton has been added to the office force as an estimator and fifty men are now on the payroll of this rapidly growing concern.

"I look for lumber prices to remain stable now that they have decreased as much as 60 per cent," said Mr. Bentley today. "Under present costs I can see no reason why Glendale should not enjoy the greatest building boom in its history this fall and winter."

"Economic charts of the United States not only show this particular part of the country to be the most prosperous, but conditions are noticeably better throughout the country. I think the blackets period of depression is now over and California which is the last to feel its effects will be the first to enjoy the benefits of prosperity in the east because it has never been otherwise here."

H. D. Carlton, architect for the Bentley-Schoeneman company, has just completed plans for Henry Rommel, Sr., for an eight room double residence on North Kenwood street which is old English in design, completely camouflaging the fact that two separate houses are under one roof.

There will be oak floors throughout, two Batchelder tile mantles, tile bathrooms and tile sinks as well as up-to-the-minute electrical fixtures and other conveniences. The exterior will present an unusual effect with jazz plaster and natural trim, the roof of shingles to be painted green.

Service Very Complete

Mr. Charlton delivered plans yesterday to C. F. Brochu, an Eagle Rock contractor, who will erect a five-room Colonial bungalow on Kenwood avenue, Eagle Rock, for William Farley of Los Angeles. Extra large rooms and every modern convenience feature this place.

To give Glendale people an idea of the complete service rendered by Bentley - Schoeneman, George L. Bentley announces that his company has taken a large display space in the Glendale Merchants' exposition and will exhibit their model homes, both in photographs and plans. Several miniature homes will attract the audience to a building expert who will be in attendance to explain how moderately a modest home, or how complete a lavish residence may be erected.

Business Section of South Glendale Grows

The gradual growth and prosperity of the business section of South Glendale is being manifested more and more each day, according to George Schram, real estate dealer of South San Fernando road. On this through highway Mr. Schram reports that during the past ninety days over seventy per cent of the business property between Los Feliz road and Central avenue has changed hands at least once.

Less than a year ago the greater portion of this section was vacant, with practically no demand for leases or sales. The recent spurt is attributed to the fact that various individuals throughout that part of the city are planning big business improvements for the near future.

W. Griffin Proposes to Build Fine Court

W. Griffin of 806 South San Fernando Road is considerably impressed with the ever increasing traffic on Windsor Road, Pacific avenue and San Fernando Road, and if conditions permit will in the near future build a modern bungalow court on his property at that intersection.

Mr. Griffin declares his business to be a reliable thermometer of economic conditions and from the fact that he is continually expanding believes there will be no interruption of swift strides being made in that progressive district.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Kenney Have Returned Home

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Kenney of El Segundo returned to their home yesterday after having spent several days visiting at the home of Mr. Kenney's mother, Mrs. Ellen Kenney of West Park avenue.

Demand for Realty In South Glendale Good Says G. Schram

An active demand for business property is reported by George E. Schram, realty operator of the south Glendale section. Sales of business property of the past few weeks, he announces as follows:

Mrs. Dollie A. Barnes, a resident of Glendale, has purchased from W. Cdendonin the two-story brick building located at the corner of Los Feliz and San Fernando Roads. The ground floor of this building is all occupied with business houses, the upstairs is divided into apartments.

The sale of the Taggert estate properties on the west side of San Fernando Road, between Los Feliz and Central, also purchased by Mrs. Barnes. This property has a frontage of 150 feet on San Fernando Road, and is improved with a two-story pressed brick building. At the consummation of this sale, several of the storerooms were vacant, but in the last three weeks, leases have been granted for all six of the storerooms.

Edward B. Everett, late of Colorado, and now associated with the Cudahy Packing company of Los Angeles, has purchased from D. F. Martin the two-story brick building at 1508 South San Fernando Road. Mr. Everett is enthused with the remarkable progress this section of the city has made within the past few months; this alone prompted his investment. It is the intention of Mr. Everett of making south Glendale his home in the near future.

Odd Name Is Given to Soft Drink Place

"Andy's Airplane" is the name of one of the newer establishments in the business district along San Fernando road, southern Glendale.

William L. Anderson, elderly but enterprising, has a canvas covered cafe, soft drink stand and peanut wagon combined in one.

On account of the tent's resemblance to a flying mahcine he has given it the odd name that attracts many a passerby.

Incidentally, he sleeps on the premises to keep prowlers away from his stock of dainties.

'The Fighting Lover,' With Frank Mayo In Lead, Attraciton at Glendale

Here's the film play everybody in Glendale has been wishing for.

It will be the feature of the Glendale Theatre program today only.

"The Fighting Lover" is its title and Frank Mayo is the star.

He is supported by five beatuiful girls—and that is said unreservedly. They are Elenor Hancock, Gertrude Olmsted, Jaqueline Logan, Jean Calhoun and Ruth Ashby. And in a type of story that everyone enjoys the most.

Here is the synopsis:

Andrew Forsdale bets his friend, Ned Randolph, $10,000 that he can supply three girls, with one of whom Ned will fall in love within thirty days. Vic Ranger, a mutual friend, to be stake holder and judge. With his Aunt Lydia as a confident, three girls are secured through an advertisement. Falling in love with Helen, one of the girls, Andrew is afraid that Ned will also fall a victim to her charms, and is on tender hooks all of the time. The three girls—Helen, Ann and Julia—are in turn suspected of being in league with burglars who have made away with a valuable diamond. During a house party this is stolen in the night, and Vic Ranger killed by the robbers. The coroner imprisons all in the mansion until detectives arrive from the city. Everything is then cleared up. Julia is discovered to be the robbers' confederate; Helen and Andrew are united; Ned wins Ann, but loses his bet to Andrew and everyone is happy.

"The Bike Bug", featuring Snub Pollard and an eccentric cyclist who appeared in the vaudeville here two weeks ago, provides the fun while Eileen Sedgwick in the seventh episode of "The Diamond Queen" is the thriller. Some show!

Caruso's Voice Silenced; Death After Operation

agony increased. His strength waned. Injections of camphor were required every two hours to stimulate his fluttering heart.

His breathing was difficult and became increasingly laborerd.

His wife, who also maintained her courage, remained at his bedside for hours.

Arrangements for the burial were not completed today. The singer's American wife was almost prostrated after her long vigils at the bedside.

Caruso was born in Naples, February 25, 1873. At the age of 11, the boy tenor began singing in the churches of his native city. When the extraordinary powers of the youthful voice were discovered, Caruso was sent for three years to study under Guglielmo Vergine.

The Carusos have one daughter—"Baby Gloria."

To Those Interested in Large Construction Work

WE WISH TO STATE:

Nearly all building material—including Lumber, Steel Products, Brick, Plumbing and Electrical Supplies, Plaster, Paints, etc., are at a comparatively low price level and efficient labor is easily obtainable. In a few months materials are apt to be somewhat higher and the building activity will be so great during the usual fall rush as to make it difficult to secure prompt service.

Go to a Reputable, Well Established Architect

Explain what you want—he then, in turn, will put you in touch with a REPUTABLE, WELL-ESTABLISHED CONTRACTOR—who will give you real value for your money and whose REPUTATION demands that he give you the exact specifications and grade of materials called for in your plans.

Glendale Is Rapidly Forging Ahead

And no one can lose by building NOW. The policy of the ROMMEL CONSTRUCTION CO., is so broad, that all we ask, is:—that the builder seek the co-operation of an honest architect,—we wishing only to have the opportunity of estimating on the contract, as our FORTY YEARS OF ACTIVE EXPERIENCE IN BUILDING AND CONTRACTING coupled with our reputation of UNQUESTIONED INTEGRITY particularly fit us to give most efficient service.

eign missions, according to the United States census report on religious bodies, in more lands than any other one denomination. This is in pursuance of the conviction that they have a world-wide message. Hundreds of young men and women, trained for missionary service as physicians, nurses, teachers, evangelists and adminstrative workers are being sent to all parts of the world by this energetic people.

The officers and members of the Southern California conference are manifesting great interest in the World Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists which will convene in San Francisco's Civic Auditorium May 11 to 31, next year. It is expected that 10,000 delegates from all parts of the world will attend, and officers for the quadriennial term will be elected. Broad plans will also be laid for the spiritual conquest of heathen lands.

Beginning Thursday evening, August 4 the sessions of the South-eastern California conference will be held at Alhambra. The attendance is expected to be even larger than for the conference just closed. J. J. Nethery, president of the South-eastern California conference will direct this meeting.
